Defective Proof of Claim – Number 3

NOTICE TO CLAIMANT: Please return this letter with the requested information

Your Proof of Claim is defective for the reason(s) stated below:

- The Proof of Claim is not signed by the claimant. Please refile an amended Proof of Claim using the enclosed Proof of Claim.
- The amount you claim the debtor owes you is not indicated on the Proof of Claim. Please refile an amended Proof of Claim using the enclosed Proof of Claim. Insert the amount owed, sign, and return your Proof of Claim to this Court.
- The case name does not correspond to any case on file in this Court; therefore, your Proof of Claim will not be filed.
 - a) If you are able to, correct the name and forward a Proof of Claim to the proper court.
 - b) If the name you provided was correct according to your knowledge, check any notices you may have received to determine whether the case is pending in another court or under another name, and forward a Proof of Claim to the proper court.
- The name of the debtor is missing; therefore, your Proof of Claim is unfiled. Add the name of the debtor and refile a Proof of Claim.
- Your letter does not establish a proper Proof of Claim. We have temporarily accepted your letter as Proof of Claim, subject to correction. Please complete and return the enclosed blank Proof of Claim form to this Court.
- Your claim does not state the period within which wages were earned per §507 of the Bankruptcy Code. Please indicate the required dates and refile an amended Proof of Claim.
- Other reason:*

Please note that objections to the allowance of your claim may result unless the noted defects are corrected.

Dated: 9/5/07
